

About InterNations

InterNations is the largest global community and trusted information resource for people who live and work abroad. Founded in 2007 by Malte Zeeck and Philipp von Plato, InterNations' mission is to make life abroad a great experience. InterNations offers exciting networking and socializing opportunities, both online and in person, to help members feel at home and make friends. Members are expats (people who have moved abroad on a temporary or permanent basis) and locals who are looking to expand their international network.

Network & Communicate

- Find international people with similar interests
- Build a professional and personal network all around the world
- Easily stay in touch — online and in person

Meet & Mingle

- Meet other expats and global minds at more than 400 monthly official events
- Share interests at more than 3,000 monthly activities
- Volunteer with social projects in the community

Exchange & Share

- Access in-depth information in country and city guides
- Read articles about expats' personal experiences
- Exchange tips and discuss expat life in the forum
